

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

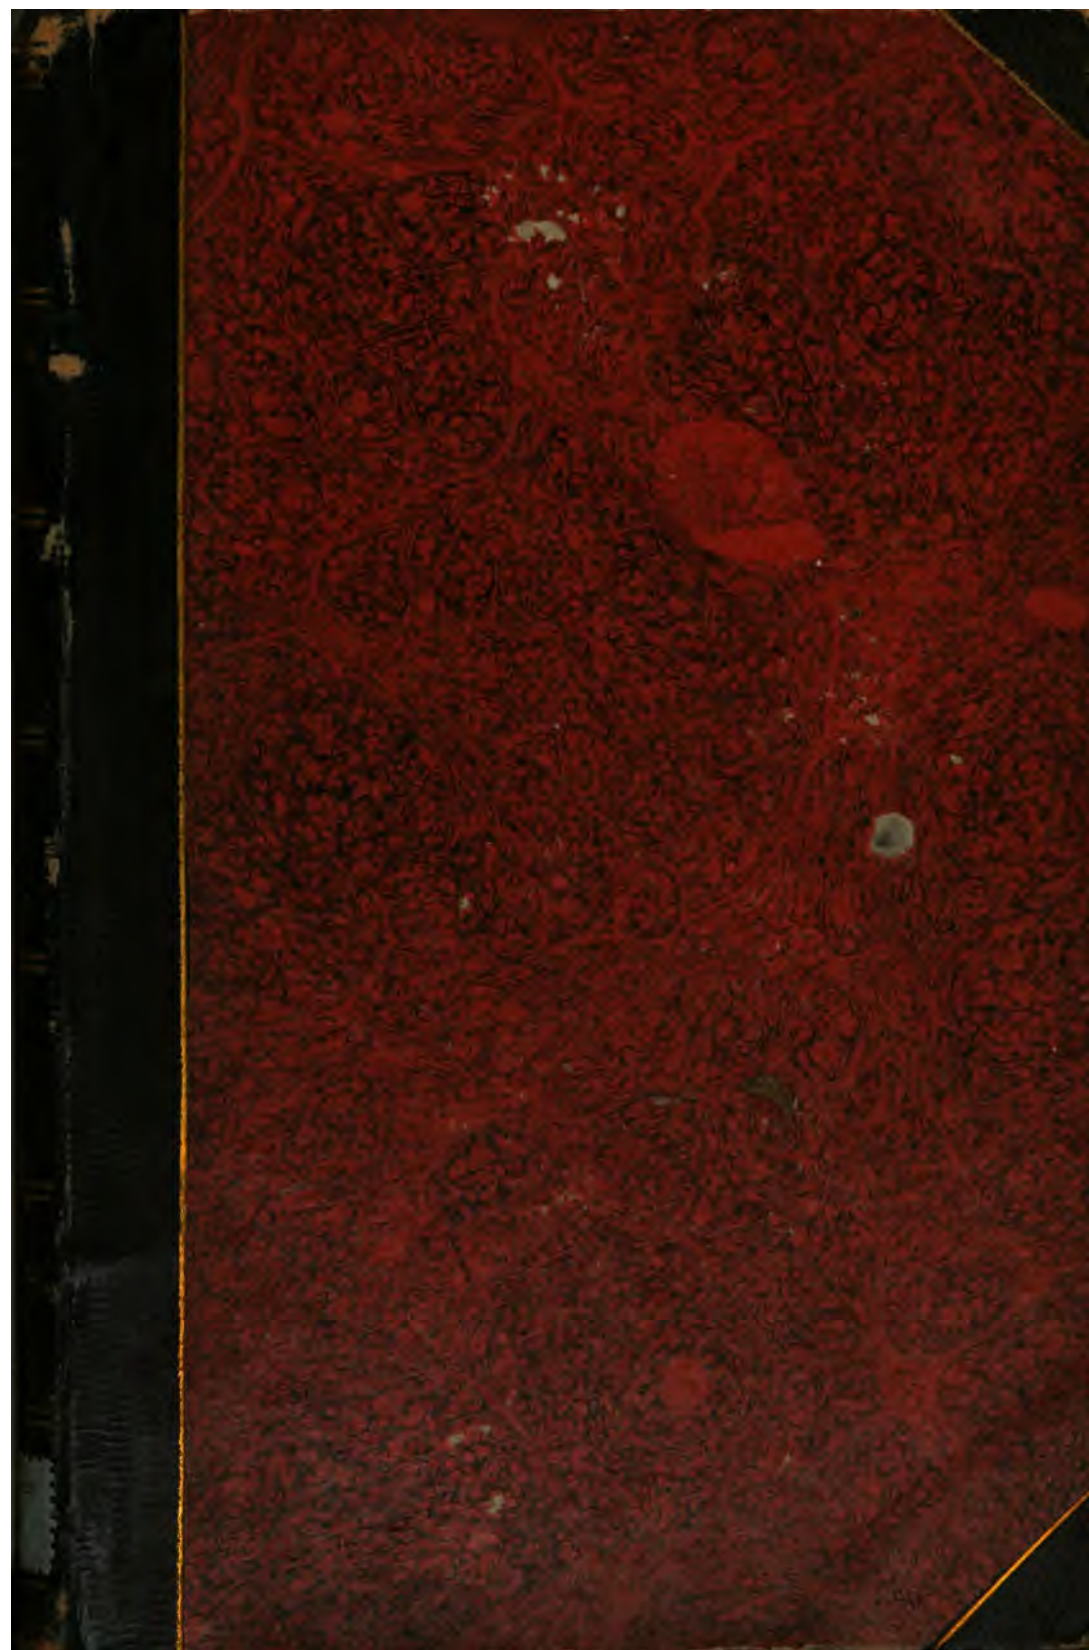

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. You can search through the full text of this book on the web at <http://books.google.com/>

APPENDIX.

The following Petition was presented to the House of Commons, on Thursday, January 1, 1807, and ordered to be taken into consideration on the 19th of February, following.

"To the Honorable the Commons of the United Kingdom of "Great Britain and Ireland in Parliament assembled "

"The humble Petition of Thomas Moulden, H. Lark, R. Brooks, and G. Warner, being Freemen of the City of Rochester.

"SHEWETH,

"That your Petitioners now are, and at the time of the last General Election of Members to serve in this present Parliament, for the City of Rochester, were Freemen of the said City, and claim to have had a right to vote, and did vote at the said Election. That in consequence of the dissolution of the late Parliament, an Election for members to serve in the present Parliament for the said City of Rochester, was held at the Town-Hall of the said City of Rochester, the 29th day of October last, and that the Candidates for the said City, were Sir William Sidney Smith, John Calcraft, and James Barnett, Esquires."

"That a poll being duly demanded, the same was granted by Richard Thompson, Esq. the mayor and returning officer of the said City, and the said poll continued until Saturday the 8th day of November last, when the said John Calcraft, and James Barnett, Esquires, were returned duly elected to serve in Parliament for the said City, to the injury and grievance, as far as concerns the return of the said James Barnett, of your Petitioners, and in gross violation of the freedom of Election, the standing order and regulations of your honorable House, and contrary to the laws and statutes of this realm."

"Your Petitioners most humbly represent that many persons who had no right or title to vote at the said Election, were received and entered on the Poll book in favor of the said James Barnett, and that many persons having a right and title to vote, and who tendered their votes for Sir William Sidney Smith, were rejected, and not allowed to vote for him."

"That various irregular, illegal, and violent acts and outrages were committed with impunity at the said Election, in favor of the said James Barnett, and to the great injury of the rights of the said Sir William Sidney Smith, then and now serving his Majesty in distant Seas, and in utter contempt of the liberty and usages of fair and free Election."

"That the said James Barnett did after the teste of the writ of Election, and at and during the said Election, and before his Election, to serve in this present Parliament for the said City of Rochester, at his own charge give, present, and allow to divers persons, having votes in the said Election, money, meat, drink, entertainments, and provision, and make presents, gifts, rewards, and entertainments, and promises, agreements, obligations, and engagements, to give and allow money, meat, drink, provisions, presents, rewards, and entertainments, to and for such persons, and to and for the use, advantage, benefit, emolument, profit, and preferment of such persons, in order to be elected, and for being elected a member to serve in this present Parliament for the City of Rochester aforesaid; and that the said James Barnett before the said Election, and at and during the same, by himself, his agents, friends, managers, partizans, and others on his behalf, regardless of the laws against bribery and corruption, and on the pains and penalties of perjury, and subornation of perjury, was guilty of scandalous and notorious bribery and corruption, and corrupt practices, in order to his being elected a member to serve in this Parliament for the said City, and that the said James Barnett, before the said Election and at and during the same, by himself, his agents, friends, managers, and partizans, and others employed by him and on his behalf, did by gifts, rewards, and by promises, agreements, and securities for gifts and rewards, corrupt and procure divers persons to give their votes at the said Election for him the said James Barnett, and to forbear to give their votes for the said Sir William Sidney Smith, by which unlawful, unjust, and corrupt practices of the said James Barnett, and of others on his behalf, he the said James Barnett obtained a colourable majority over the said Sir William Sidney Smith, and procured himself to be returned for the City aforesaid. Whereas, your Petitioners humbly contend and undertake to prove, that the said Sir William Sidney Smith had a majority of LEGAL votes at the said Election, over the said James Barnett, and ought to have been returned to serve in the Parliament for the said City accordingly."

"That the aforesaid, and divers other unlawful and corrupt practices of the said James Barnett, his agents, friends, managers, partizans, and others, employed by him, and on his behalf, are contrary to the freedom of Election, in violation to the standing

standing order and regulations of your honorable House, and of the laws and statutes of this realm, for preventing charge and expence in the Election of members to serve in Parliament, and have rendered the Election and return of the said James Barnett, null and void to all intents and purposes."

Your Petitioners therefore most humbly pray your Honorable House to take the premises into consideration, and to grant to your Petitioners such relief as to this Honorable House shall seem meet.

And your Petitioners shall ever pray, &c.

On the 15th of January the Petitioners attended to enter into the usual Recognizances, and offered as securities, Mr. Dennis O'Bryen, and Mr. Mitchel, who were both objected to by the Agent for the sitting Member, and J. Spencer Smith, Esq. and a Mr. Onion, were substituted in their stead.

February the 19th, the House ballotted for the Committee, and the following Members were appointed.

JOHN BLACKBURNE, Esq. CHAIRMAN.

On Friday, February 20, the Petition was read.

Mr. Sergeant Lens opened the Case of the Petitioners, and stated, that forty-seven Freemen were admitted on the 3d day of November, in violation of an existing Bye Law of the Corporation, that he should be able to establish a clear Majority in favor of Sir Sidney Smith, but if he failed in that, he should be able to prove some extraordinary circumstances and proceedings that must, at all events, make it a void Election.

The conduct of the Mayor in calling a meeting of the Corporation, on the 3d of November, to admit Freemen, was irregular: that Mr. Dennis O'Brien with a degree of openness, and candour, advised the Mayor on the hustings not to hold the meeting, but he was overcome by clamour, and could not be heard, although a speech made on the other side was attended to, and the Mayor, in defiance of the remonstrance of Mr. O'Brien, persisted in holding the Corporation meeting, at which the forty seven Freemen were admitted. That the majority of the bench admitted many of those persons to their Freedom, without producing the regular documents; that Mr. Alderman Henslow, Mr. Alderman King, Mr. Snatt, and Mr. Manclark, protested against the proceedings, as irregular and illegal; that the Mayor would not hold the meeting, until he was satisfied the majority of persons to be admitted were in favor of Mr. Barnett, and with his eyes open, subjected himself to the penalty of £200. It was fair to suppose he had some advantage in view more than equivalent to the penalty. That seven persons polled receiving alms, viz. J. Jordan, sen J. Lammas, W. Frazier, R. Taylor, J. Harrison, Taylor, T. Rogers, and J. Rance, sen. with many others. That two Aliens polled, Andrew Bullinari, and J. A. B. Krull. That a Lunatic of the name of John Bardo, was suffered to poll for Mr. Barnett. That John Job, a Customhouse Officer, J. Harrison, a Soldier, and F. S. Bond two convicted Felons, also polled. (Mr. Sergeant Lens on a subsequent day gave the counsel for the sitting Member, a list of eighty-five Voters for Mr. Barnett, to whom they meant to object.)

That the Treating was most enormous, particularly at the King's Head, which must, beyond all question, make it a void Election. That Mr. Barnett was present there, and approved and assented to every thing that was going on.

The Mayor, and the Town Clerk, were examined as to the Bye Laws, and Customall.

Saturday, February 21, the counsel for the Petitioners delivered in their statement of Right of Election for the City of Rochester, to be in "All the Freemen not receiving alms." (The

The Counsel for the sitting Member stated the right to be "in the Freemen admitted in right of being the eldest Sons of Freemen, Born within the City, by Servitude, or Purchase, and not receiving alms."

Mr. Henslow, and the Mayor were re-examined, respecting the admission of honorary Freemen. Mr. Henslow always considered that the roll of Parchment contained the Bye Laws under which they acted, and not the Customall. He understood that a printed copy of the Charter, and Bye Laws, was sent to each member of the Corporation, on their admission.

Mr. Dennis O'Bryen was examined by Mr. Clifford, respecting the proceedings on the hustings on the 3d of November, prior to the meeting of the Corporation. His evidence chiefly went to state his protest against the Mayor's holding the corporate meeting; that he was supported in the protest by several members of the Corporation, but they were borne down by the clamour and noise of the other party. On his cross examination by Mr. Harrison, he admitted that the Mayor exerted himself to facilitate the easy access of voters to the Poll table. He admitted he was the author of a letter in the papers respecting L5000, He denied having said with that money, he would keep the Poll open fifteen days, but on the contrary. He admitted that on his first arrival, he produced the L5000, to the Mayor. He did not actually know that the Corporation business was going on, until going to bed about Three o'Clock the next morning, he saw the Hall illuminated.

He afterwards acknowledged he was on the stairs of the Hall, canvassing the persons waiting to be admitted. He did not join with the Mayor and Mr. Calcraft in thanking the Freemen for their orderly behaviour. He did hear the Mayor thank the Freemen at intervals, which he thought they did not deserve.

Respecting the general conduct of the Mayor.

On the first day he did not conceal from the Mayor his censure and indignation at his improper conduct, on subsequent days he often bore testimony of his strict impartiality, but on the whole his censure would outweigh his panegyric.

He acknowledged that notwithstanding the violent outrages, noise, and clamour, nothing did ultimately prevent the Freemen from voting.

The Bribery oath was not administered until the second day, and then by his particular desire. He

He admitted he had the £5000 for the purpose of the Election, but that it was not the money of Sir Sidney Smith; it was given by a person who never saw Sir Sidney Smith, it was advanced wholly out of respect to Sir Sidney's character.

Monday, February 23.

Mr. Simmons and the Town Clerk produced former Poll Books, and were examined respecting honorary Freemen.

"The Committee determined that the right of Voting for members to serve in Parliament at Rochester is in all the Freemen not receiving alms or charity."

Mr. Henslow was examined respecting the proceedings that took place on the Hustings, and at the corporate meeting, on the 3d of November; he spoke from his minutes made at the time: he conceived the meeting to be illegal, and irregular, and protested against it to the Mayor. In many instances he said the necessary documents were dispensed with, and several persons therefore improperly admitted. He advised the Mayor at Twelve o'Clock to adjourn, which he refused; he again advised him at One o'Clock, but without effect, and the business finally closed at about half past two. He never recollected attending a meeting before where they were detained longer than eight or nine o'Clock.

On cross examination by Mr. Plumer, Mr. Henslow stated he frequently attended Sir Sidney Smith's friends at the Bull, but that he was not one of the Committee. He received his notice to attend the meeting on Thursday, previous to the 3d of November. He had been twice Mayor, and during his second Mayoralty, not above two or three meetings were held, he regularly issued notices, but could not get a quorum.

At the meeting of the 3d of November, the cases of the persons applying to be admitted, were discussed in the usual way, he did not recollect the least partiality in the Mayor. When a person came in, he questioned him on one side, and Mr. Simmons on the other side: every body was at liberty to ask questions. He did not recollect a single instance before this meeting, where a person was admitted without producing the usual certificate. Seventy persons applied at this meeting, and forty-nine were admitted.

Edmund Baker, sergeant at Mace, proved the notices to the members of the Corporation were served in the usual way, and that he received direction from the Mayor on the 20th of October.

The

The Town Clerk was examined, and proved that the business of the 3d of November, was conducted in the usual and regular manner; he stated that in many instances prior to this meeting, persons had been admitted without producing the usual documents.

Mr. J. Snatt was examined. He attended the meeting of the 3d of November, and protested against the proceedings; was not quite certain whether persons had at any former meeting been admitted without the necessary certificates. He was a friend of Sir Sidney Smith, and frequently attended their committee; he gave them every assistance he could respecting the Voters, and attended Mr. O'Bryen and the friends of Sir Sidney Smith on their canvass, for the purpose of pointing out the persons and residence of the Freeman. At the Corporation meeting, about eight or nine persons were admitted without producing their regular certificates, some were friends of Mr. Barnett, and some of Sir Sidney Smith.

Re-examined by Mr. Dallas, he said he has before known persons admitted without the regular certificate, but not frequently.

Mr. Alderman Ford was examined to prove he never had known an instance of Freeman being admitted during an Election. He protested against the meeting. He acknowledged the Roll of Parchment signed by the members of the Corporation, constituted the Bye Laws by which they acted.

Mr. S. Nicholson was examined. The proceedings on the 3d of November were regular, and in the usual way: he was present the whole time; attended inside the door, for the purpose of facilitating the business, and was occasionally relieved by Mr. E. Manclark, and Mr. Snatt, two of the junior members of the Corporation, and zealous friends of Sir Sidney Smith. The claims of every one were fairly and impartially considered, in the order in which they came up. Has known frequent instances when the necessary certificates have been dispensed with. It was not more done at this meeting, than at any former one. It was done indiscriminately to one party as to the other.

Mr. E. Manclark was examined. He attended the meeting of the 3d of November, and protested against the proceedings, he denied relieving Mr. Nicholson as Door keeper.

February 24. Counsel were heard on both sides on the validity of the Bye Law. The Committee came to a resolution, "That it does not appear to the Committee that there is any validity validity in the supposed Bye Law insisted upon by the Petitioners, or any such irregularity in the proceedings of the meeting of the Corporation, on the 3d of November, 1806, as to have vitiated the admission of Freemen having inchoate Rights."

Mr. Sergeant Lens proceeded to a Scrutiny of Votes. John Jordan, sen. William Frazier, John Harrison, Taylor, and John Lammas, Voters for Mr. Barnett, were proved to have received parish relief, by themselves or families, and their votes allowed Bad.

Charles Dunkin, and John Moore, voters for Sir Sidney Smith, were allowed Bad, on the same grounds.

The counsel for the Petitioners then objected to the votes of Joseph Oliver, Robert Norman, Henry Webb, and John Corns, on the grounds of being excused Poor Rates. The Committee did not come to a decision respecting those votes, as the Petitioners counsel abandoned their objections to them.

Thursday, Feb. 25. Abraham Lloyd, examined, respecting the vote of Dorrell Clewes: was asked if he had received parish relief from November, 1805, to November, 1806, he replied in the negative.

The Town Clerk called in again, and produced the record of the Conviction of John Harrison, a Soldier.

Thomas Bishop examined, identified the person of John Harrison, as being the same person who voted at the last Election.

E. Tanner, of the Custom house, called in and examined. He proved that John Job had been employed as a Tide waiter within the year.

William Knowles parish Officer of Aylesford, proved that Robert Taylor had received parish relief within the year.

The Town Clerk re-examined, and identified Charles Dunkin, Robert Taylor, and John Moore, as having polled at the Election: the votes of J. Harrison, Soldier, J. Job, and R. Taylor, allowed to be Bad.

Counsel and Agents for the Petitioners withdrew, and upon their return Mr. Sergeant Lens addressed the Committee and stated, that being disappointed in Evidence, to establish a clear Majority for Sir Sidney Smith, they should then proceed to the other part of the case, viz. "Treating by Mr. Barnett and his Agents.

Mr.

2. The second part outlines the various methods and tools used to collect and analyze data. It includes a detailed description of the data collection process, from identifying sources to gathering information, and the subsequent analysis of the data to identify trends and patterns.

3. The third part of the document focuses on the results of the data analysis. It presents a series of charts and graphs that illustrate the findings of the study. These results are then discussed in the context of the organization's overall goals and objectives.

4. The final part of the document provides a summary of the key findings and conclusions. It highlights the most significant results of the study and offers recommendations for future research and action. The document concludes by emphasizing the importance of ongoing monitoring and evaluation to ensure the organization remains effective and efficient.

Mr. S. Holloway examined. He said that Mr. Barnett lodged at his house during the greatest part of the Election. He first came there the evening before the Election; accompanied by a great number of persons: the confusion was so great, that he could not recollect any particular gentlemen that were with him, but believes he saw Mr. Alderman Baker, Mr. Alderman Nicholson, and Mr. J. Matthews, among the crowd. Was asked who introduced Mr. Barnett to him, replied nobody. Had orders to give refreshment only to out-dwellers. The young Freemen were entertained at his house, on the evening of the 3d of November, he gave general instructions to his servants to give refreshment only to out-voters. In the confusion it was impossible to say but in-dwellers might have been treated. Does not know who Mr. Barnett's Committees were. Mr. Barnett was backwards and forwards in the house, but he does not know that he ever dined there. His bill amounted to upwards of £700, he included in the bill about 3 or £400 for the wear and tear of his furniture, &c. provisions for the Band and Colour men; likewise Post Chaise hire for out-dwellers. Had in his house at the same time, parties of other Freemen from different places. His bill is not paid; delivered it to no one in particular; sent it to the Committee room: does not know by whom he shall be paid. Being asked if he had any directions from particular persons, he replied that he acted more from his own head than otherwise. Was directed by Alderman Baker in the first instance, to furnish entertainment for out-dwellers; looks to him more than any other person for payment.

J. Baker, an out-voter, examined. Called to prove general Treating at the King's Head; he saw Mr. Barnett in the house two or three times, but did not hear him give any orders.

John Taylor, called also to prove Treating at the King's Head. He partook of a dinner, a great many persons were present; went there to accompany his two late apprentices who were out-dwellers.

John Fielder a young Freeman examined. He saw no Treating at the King's Head, waited there till he was called to be sworn; was in the House six hours, and took one glass of wine with a friend.

J. Watton, victualler, examined. He keeps the Dredging Boat, Strood. His house was open during the Election. Forty or fifty Freemen were constantly entertained there, at all hours of the day, for about five days. Mr. Barnett was there twice to canvals canvass the voters; part of his bill was paid by the parties present, and he looks to those who partook of the entertainment to pay the rest. He has no claim whatever, on Mr. Barnett.

Friday, February 27, Silas Hance, examined, to prove Treating at the King's Head; a great many persons were present, there was eating and drinking; he saw Mr. Barnett in the room, but he did not partake of any refreshment, nor invite any to do it. Upon his cross examination, he acknowledged he polled twice, first for Mr. Barnett, the next time for Sir Sidney Smith.

Here closed the case of the Petitioners.

Mr. Dallas summoned up their case, and Mr. Finmer replied on the part of the sitting member.

The Committee room was cleared, and after some short deliberation the Council and Agents were called in and informed—

“That the Right of voting for members to serve in Parliament, for the City of Rochester, is in all Freemen not receiving alms or charity,” and also—

“That the said Committee have determined that James Barnett, Esq. is duly Elected a Citizen to serve in this present Parliament for the City of Rochester,” and also—

“That the Petition of the Freemen of the said City, did not appear to the said Committee to be frivolous or vexatious.”

And the Chairman was directed to report the same to the House.

Errata. In Page 56, the vote of R. Taylor is stated by mistake Bad.

ADDENDA.

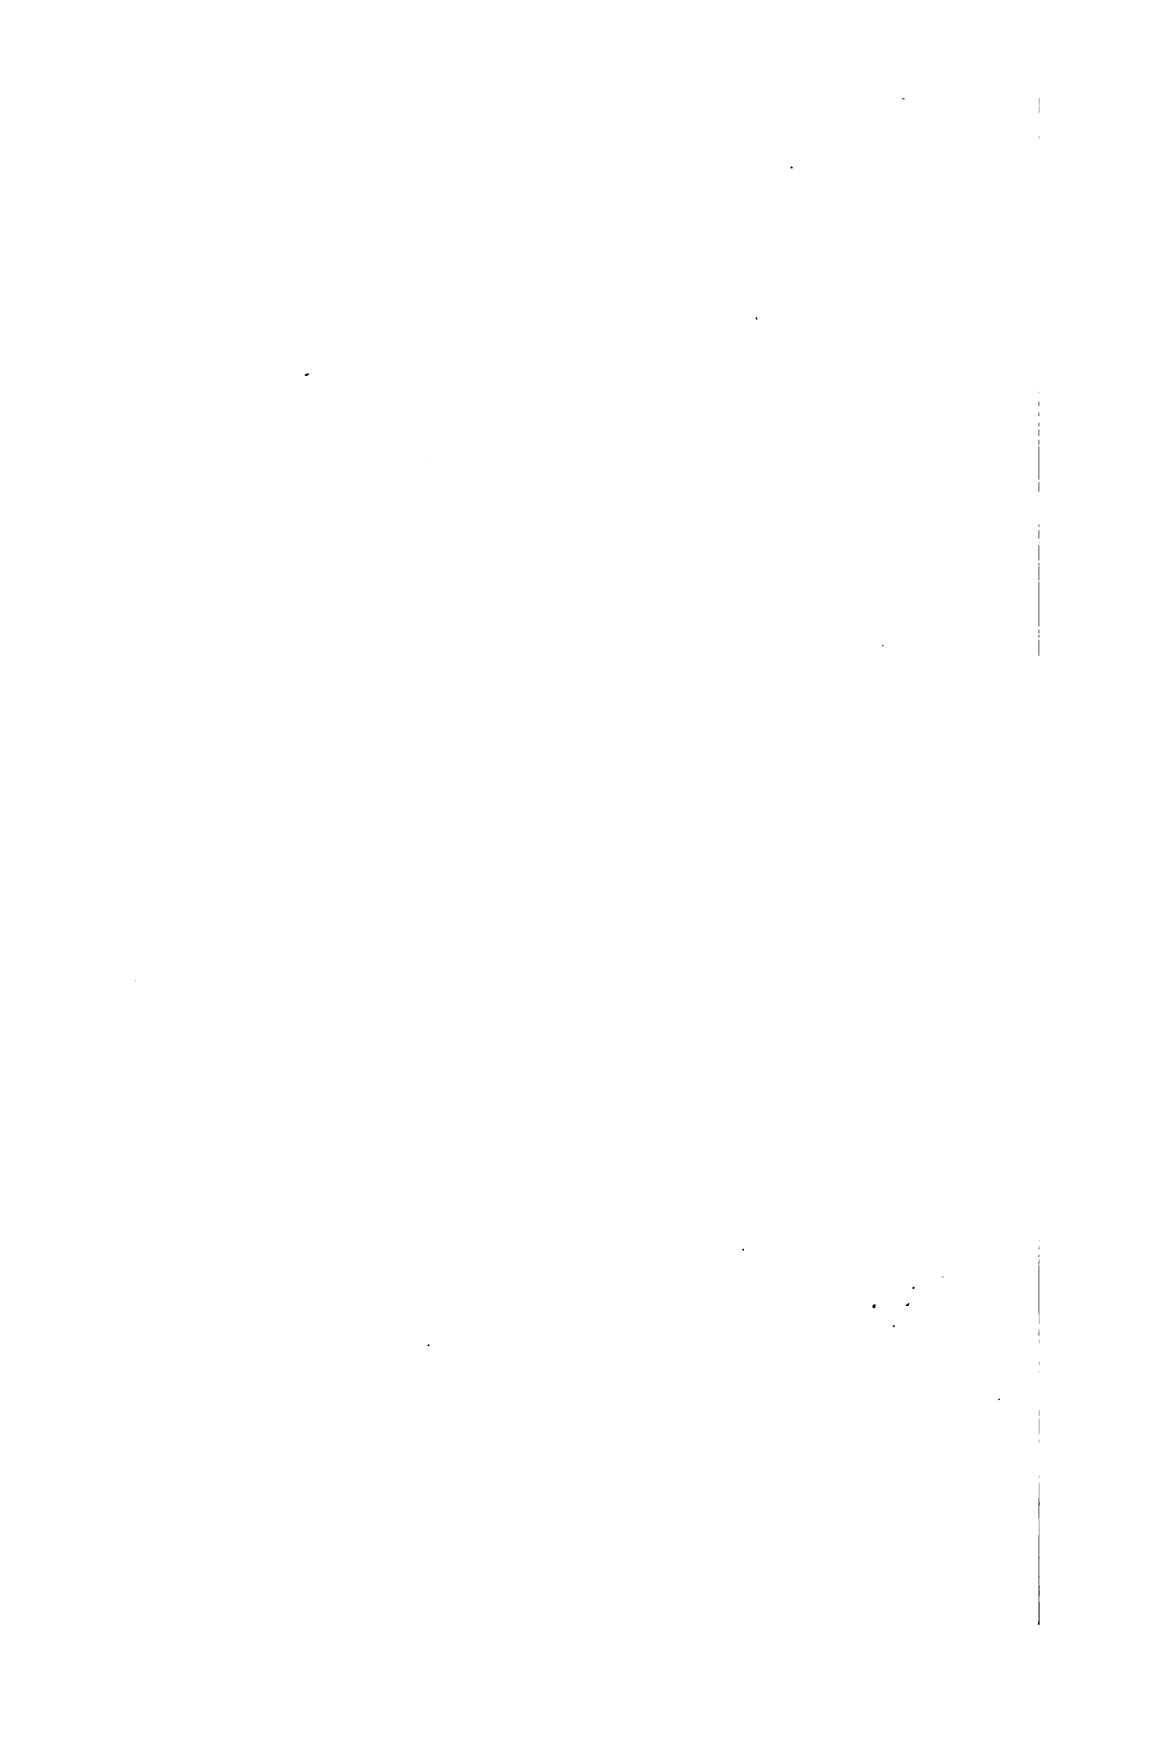

Upon the scrutiny of votes, six only were struck off by the Petitioners, and Robert Taylor's, was reserved to be argued upon, he having been only casually relieved. Two votes were struck off on the part of the sitting member, which reduced Mr. Barnett's majority on the whole Poll to Seven, and as the Petitioners abandoned the scrutiny of votes, the sitting member had no opportunity of giving evidence on those he intended to object to; but if the Committee had gone through the whole evidence on this part of the case, the actual majority would have been TWELVE.
